A PAIR OF SOLITAIRE DIAMOND EARRINGS, approaching 2 carate, of a choice steel white color, dataling lustre and perfectly ent to match; our prise a $100: they would cost at least $200 to import.

AMONG THE ENORMOUS INDUCEMENTS which we offer this week we have a pair of diamond solitaire Earrings that for size, quality and price combined would be hard to beat; they weigh 3% carats, of a steel white color, purfectly cut to match, antworp siyle, and a lusare that is simply dazaling; our price is $210; they cost originally $400.

WE KNOW THAT EVERY ONE OF YOU WANT to buy a pair of Earrings and they should be large stones, and you don't want to pay a faucy brice for them either. Now we have a pair that will fill the bill; they weigh 7% carata of an exceptionally fine color; perfectly out to match, Antwerp style, and a lustre that is darkling; our price is $075; they would cost at least SCOU to duplicate. MARQUISE RINGS BEING VERY MUCH SOUGHT after, we have a line of squerh ones. Here is one which we will describe.—Three large omeralds of exceptionally fice color, surrounded by 26 diamonds of the Buest grade, which we offer as an inducement for $150; the original cost was $350.

A GORGEOUS DIAMOND PENDANT, REPRE-senting a sunburst, containing 37 of the choicest se-lected diamonds, set so that no gold is visible. We offer it as an inducement for SiDS; it would cost at least $225 to duplicate elsewhere.

A MAGNIFICENT DIAMOND NECKLACE OF nine very large stoel white genus of rare perfection, each diamond set separately and swinging from a neat 18 cavat gold chain, having a marvellons effect, We offer it as an inducement for $100; it would cost at least $250 to duplicate.

A.—DON'T READ THIS UNLESS YOU WANT TO know where to get Diamonds and Precious Stones at 25 per cont cheaper than any other house in this city can afford to sell them.

Mrs. Hierres A Lynch has been known in this city since 1884 as a DIAMOND DEALAR, and no doubt has she inside track of the market, to which her numerous natrons will testify, and those about to invest she asks—Call and convince yourselves.
